MARRIED -On Tuesday evening, March 16, 1880, at Ironton, Mo., by Rev. J. R. Hicks, Mr. THOS. B. MOORE, of Poplar Bluff, to Miss JENNIE HARVEY, of Ironton.

Here's health, wealth, long life and happiness to them!

Last Tuesday the morning freights were delayed for several hours. No. 17, passing here at 4:15 a. M., left the track at Pilot Kuob, and jammed things into such a condition that the united efforts of all hands and the cook were required for hours to set things straight

DIED-At Ashley Creek Mills, near Potosi, Washington county, Mo., David Barelay, of pneumonia, on the 24th day of February, 1880, at 7:25 A. M., oldest son of the late James Barclay Chryston, of Glasgow, Scot-Des Arc, Iron county. Scottish papers please

The other night George Carter caught a young darkey throwing stones at his livery stable. One broke a window and fell in the room where George happened to be at the time-and this good shot made the trouble. At George's instance the young darkey was arrested, taken before Judge Dinger, and suit- bi the return ov the prodigal! Yes; the ably fined.

Our young friends, G. A. Auerswald, and G. W. Farrar, Esq., returned from the St. Louis Medical College last week, full-fledged M. D.'s. Those who were in attendance say they passed flattering examinations, and we are confident they will, with experience, become skilled in their calling. May their professional as well as their private lives be long | weddins hav ben mitey skarse.

One of the workmen on top of Pilot Knob was injured pretty tadly last Saturday by being struck on the head with a piece of falling elate. He remained insensible for a few min-utes, and upon recovering he started down the mountain; "since that time," said our informant vesterday, "nothing has been heard of him." We presume he will turn up all right, however.

John Simons and John Eichelberger, Esqs., of Hopewell, Pa., came to Ironton last Thursday, and are now down at Gadshill, overlooking the beauties of nature in that locality. They are both young men, full of life and vigor, and will devote the coming summer to making carbon out of native oak and pine. In other words, they will take charge of a "coaling" for the Peckam Iron Company, if terms can be agreed upon.

The St. Louis Variety Company gave a couple of entertainments at the courthouse last Friday and Saturday evenings. The weather was miserably bad, and deterred many of our citizens from attending, and the houses were not very large. Nevertheless, those who were present on either evening enjoyed a couple of hours' excellent amusement. The singing was especially good, and the ladies and gentlemen of the company were repeatedly encored.

Last week twelve thousand baby trout and ealmon-trout were planted in Emerson's unsal'ed seas. The little fellows are very lively, and stood their five-hundred-mile trip from a number of country people were in-attracted, Northern Iowa very nicely. We shall watch | we suppose, by the sale of farm machinery the growth of those little beauties with interest, as ye editor anticipates, as usual, you and blacksmith Newt, laid down the hammer know, the best specimens to measure and and took up the auctioneer's gavel and went weigh and nibble for his breakfast, of course. And all the boys in our office (having read Parnell's speeches) say, "hear, hear!" And our devil puts his hand on his stomach and eays, Hear! bear!!

The snow-storm which filled the air, blinded our eyes, and covered hill and valley with its no-colored blankets, last Monday, was, to put it mildly, a surprise to the creatures which inhabit this section of an uncertain world. And with the snow came about as severe cold as we have experienced during the winter. At this writing, however, the sun is shining, the frost has lost its bite, and in two or three more days we shall no doubt be again in the midst of an early spring. Fruit, although forward, is believed to have suffered but little, if any; and we have reason to believe that the crisis has passed. Old Winter has given his last kick at the tender shins of gentle Spring.

Judge Stephens, of Belleview, sends us the following: "I herewith hand you a statement of the amount of wheat raised and threshed in Iron township, Iron county, Mo., ticular friends who will play a quiet game last year (1879); the information being obtoined from the parties that did the threshing -25,432 bushels. Also a meagre report from other parts of the county: Matkin threshed 8,711 bushels; Funk threshed 1,034 bushels; Luthy threshed 878 bushels; Campbell & Sutton thresh'd 4,340 bushels;

19 345 bushels. To which add Iron Town'p, 24,433 bushels, and we have Last summer we endeavored to get a full statement of the wheat threshed all over the county, but failed-T. B. Lowe, Esq., of Des Arc, making the only response to our request. The amount returned by him is included in that threshed by Mr. Matkin. We trust, this year, that every thresher and farmer will take notes on the question, and remit the figures to us. Please give the amount sowed and raised, and the acreage. Intending emigrants lis, near Ironton Hotel, Ironton, Modesire just such information, and we would like to lay it before them; but we cannot do it without the assistance of the Tarmers of the county. Will they please cut out this item, paste it in their hats, and at the proper time, send in their reports?

BELLEVIEW, March 15th, 1880.

Ed. Register-Winter still lingers in the lap of spring. We have come to the conclusion that Old Probs must be a bird of ill omen as well as myself, or else we have been shifted round several degrees toward the Arctic region, as we had a severe snow-sto m here on the 12th. Notwithstanding the bad weather, on Saturday our little village was on the boom. Quite under chattel mortgage by McKinney Bros.; into it timidly at first, vigorously toward the

In your issue of February 19th your correspondent, "One of the Boys," made the remark that "one of our young Americans who had been trying to sail into matrimony for some time has come down with a crash," or something to that effect. Your youthful correspondent (the boy) has some time ago reefed his sails and came down with a splash and great was the splash thereof. And further, I don't believe in card-playing myself; but people that don't know a 'full' from a 'flush' shouldn't go steaming about and making such remarks about others; and parnow and again had better stick to the old adage, "People who live in glass house should not throw stones."
